STORM AT BALTIMORE

Loss of a Dozen Lives and Great Destruction of Property.

HOVOC TO SHIPS IN THE HARBOR.

Almost Without Warning an Irresistible Wind Sweeps Over the Water and the Land With Disastrous Results.

Baltimore, July 22.—The tornado which suddenly struck this city, involving the loss of 12 lives and a widespread destruction of property, was the severest which has been known in this latitude for years. Nothing in the way of a storm had been forecasted and the weather bureau was taken completely by surprise.

Almost without a moment's warning an irresistible wind, apparently in the nature of a whirlwind, came from the southwest, and in an instant the waters of the harbor were converted into a seething cauldron, frail boats were capsized, while the staunchest vessels at anchor were violently rocked. Of the 12 lives lost three were drowned by the upsetting of boats in the river, one was killed by a tree falling on him and one by coming in contact with a live electrical wire.

A careful estimate furnished from police headquarters shows that 200 houses were unroofed during the prevalence of the storm. Six roofs in one block were blown off.

The roof of the William street independent Methodist church was lifted high in the air and blown over the roofs of other houses to a distance of 150 feet. The stone spire of Holy Cross Catholic church was hurled to the ground. A part of the roof of Trinity Protestant Episcopal church was torn off, while the historic steeple of St. Mary's Star of the Sea church was completely destroyed. The public squares and parks are considerably wrecked. Patterson park is a scene of desolation. The whole extent of these pleasure grounds is strewn with broken branches and uprooted trees and the debris completely chokes up the drive-ways.

Many handsome trees in Franklin square and Faid Hill park, as well as on the shaded streets have been uprooted bodily, many falling across thoroughfares, temporarily blocking them. Much damage has been done to house fronts in all sections of the city by the falling trees. A tree 100 years old was blown down on Chestnut street.

In the business section of the city numerous plate glass windows have been blown in. Telegraph and telephone service has been crippled to some extent and many lines are out of use.

Another Destructive Storm.

Jamestown, N. Y., July 22.—Another terrific storm passed over Chautauqua county, doing great damage to growing crops and delaying railway traffic and cutting such holes in highways that travel across country is almost impossible. George Courtney was drowned at French creek while trying to ford a swollen stream. A bridge across a culvert in this city broke down while George Singular, a 6-year-old boy was sitting on it and he was quickly carried into a sewer through which he was swept at a terrific rate for more than 1,000 feet. He came out at the lower end in less than three minutes in a frightfully cut and bruised condition, but alive and able to crawl to a place of safety.

Heavy Rainfall.

Penn Yan, N. Y., July 22.—One of the heaviest rainfalls that has yet occurred has prevailed over the Lake Keuka region during the last 36 hours. Three inches of water has fallen, making the total rainfall for the month seven inches. All streams are overflowing their banks and the water in the lake has risen 10 inches in the last 24 hours. Many cellars are flooded and farmers are having much trouble in harvesting their grain.

Examination Postponed.

Lansing, Mich., July 22.—Owing to the illness of one of the attorneys for the defense, the examination of the Henderson-Ames company directors and S. N. Bickerstaff of Kalamazoo, on a charge of perjury in connection with the grand jury investigation of the state military frauds was postponed until Aug. 11.

In Honor of Mackay.

San Francisco, July 22.—Flags are at half mast on the Postal Telegraph company's building, the Merchants' Exchange and many downtown business houses in respect to the memory of the late John W. Mackay.

MACKEY'S WEALTH.

A Former Associate Tells About the Dead Man's Millions.

San Francisco, July 22.—Richard Day, a close personal friend and former confidential secretary of the late John W. Mackey, who died in London, said: "I don't suppose Mr. Mackey himself knew within $20,000,000 of what he was worth. His business was in such order and his arrangements were so carefully made that everything will go on just as though he were still alive. He was president of the Mackey-Bennett Cable company, president of the Postal Telegraph company and president of the Prospective Pacific Commercial Cable company, vice president of the new $7,000,000 sugar refinery at Yonkers, N. Y., of which Gus Spreckels is president, director of the Canadian Pacific Railway company, director of the Southern Pacific and director of the new proposed railroad from Havana to Santiago, in Cuba. He was one of the largest owners of the White Nob Copper mine of Mackey, Idaho, to which the Union Pacific built a 90-mile branch. He was interested with C. L. Lane in the Wild Goose Mining company at Nome. He was heavily interested in the Sprague Elevator and Electrical works of New York.

In San Francisco Mr. Mackey owned half the Nevada block, the Grand opera house and the big lot at the southeast corner of Market and Fourth streets. He owned vast tracts of woodland.

Mr. Mackey was a member of the Pacific Union club of San Francisco and of the Merchants Exchange. He was a staunch Republican, but before the civil war he was a Democrat. Again and again he refused to be senator from Nevada and eschewed office. In religion he was a Roman Catholic and two of his warmest friends were the late Bishop Monaghan, who had jurisdiction over northern California's mining regions and a large part of Nevada, and Archbishop Riordan. In New York he maintained five or six of the free beds in hospitals in memory of his son Willie, who died half a dozen years ago, at the age of 26. Mr. Mackey was always doing good quietly and giving money. A large number of regular pensioners will miss him.

Mr. Mackey came to America from Ireland as an infant with his father, who was afterwards naturalized. But along in 1867, James G. Fair, who was Mr. Mackey's partner and also born in Ireland, could not remember whether or not the elder Fair was naturalized, so to make sure Fair and Mackey were naturalized together at Virginia, Nevada, by their friend "Snady" Baldwin, who was United States district judge. I think Mr. Mackey was originally a carpenter, for when he came on the Comstock he was considered an authority on mine timbering."

Run on a Bank.

Chicago, July 22.—News of the disappearance of nearly $30,000 from the vaults of the Masonic Temple Safety Deposit company Saturday spread to such an extent that it caused a "run" on the vaults. When the day vaults were opened for business there was a struggling crowd of men and women depositors in waiting who feared for moneys and valuables that they had deposited in the company's strong boxes. For a time there was almost a panic in the crowd. The office force of the deposit company was unable to cope with the great demand for verification signatures and in the vaults the turnkeys for several hours were unable to open boxes fast enough to keep down the crowd.

Who Is the Dead Man?

New York, July 22.—Officials of the Newark board of health are greatly puzzled over the identity of a man, who, under the name of George Amie, died at the isolation hospital on Jan. 20 from smallpox. The widow and relatives held services over the grave and a small amount of insurance was collected. A leading Newark lawyer who knew Amie well now declares positively that he has seen the supposed dead man, in Broad street, Newark; that he conversed with him and was told that the story of death was a hoax and that he had escaped from the isolation hospital.

Will Not Race.

New York, July 22.—All of the many thoroughbreds belonging to Clarence B. Mackay, which are now in training will be scratched out of events for which they have been entered, owing to the death of Mr. Mackay's father. His colors will not be seen on the tracks again this year, although it is possible that some of his best horses will be transferred to the name of his trainer, Charles Hill, and will be raced later in the season.

John Murphy and John Brandt, employees of the Lorain (O.) Steel company, were suffocated by gas.

EXCURSION STEAMER

Is Cut In Two and Quickly Sunk by a Tug on the River Elbe.

FIFTY PERSONS PERISH IN WATER.

At the Time of the Accident the Steamer Primus Was Crossing the River Channel Near Blankenes.

Hamburg, July 22.—The steamship Primus, owned by the Hamburg steamship line, with 185 passengers on board, was cut in two and sunk by the tug Hansa on the river Elbe. So far as is ascertainable, about 50 persons were drowned. Thirteen bodies already have been recovered.

The Primus was an excursion steamer from Buxtehude, province of Hanover, Prussia. The disaster occurred between Planckenes and Nienstedten.

Among the passengers were the members of the Elbebeck male choral society. At the time of the accident, the Primus was crossing the river channel near Blankenes from the southern into the northern fairway.

According to witnesses aboard the Hansa the movement was made precipitately. The Primus struck the tug's engine room and the Hansa endeavored to push her ashore, but the tug grounded and the ship parted. The Primus then sank. In the interval, however, about 50 of her passengers were able to reach the Hansa by means of ropes and ladders. Seventy more were picked up by the tug's boats, while others swam ashore.

HEAVY RAINS

Have Turned the Mississippi River Into a Flood.

St. Louis, July 22.—The expected flood from up the river due to the heavy rains emptying into the Mississippi from its various tributaries, has not yet reached here, and the water is falling, the government gauge showing 26.1 feet, a decline of two inches. At Hannibal, above here, the weather observer reports the water eight inches higher than Saturday and rising at the rate of a quarter of an inch an hour. Here it was expected reach 30 feet, the danger line.

Farewell to Pope.

Rome, July 22.—The pope received Governor Taft and the members of his party in farewell audience at noon. The Americans drove in two carriages from their hotel to the vatican. Judge Taft and Judge Smith were evening dress, as prescribed by etiquette; Major Porter was in full uniform and Bishop O'Gorman wore ecclesiastical robes. They were received at the great door of the vatican by the Swiss guards who rendered military honors. At the foot of the state staircase the Americans were met by Monsignor Bisleti, master of ceremonies, who was accompanied by several other dignitaries of the papal court. At the door of the pontifical apartments the noble guards and gendarmes rendered the customary honors, after which Governor Taft and his companions were introduced into the presence of the pope who welcomed them with marked cordiality.

Gold Beaters Strike.

Philadelphia, July 22.—A strike was inaugurated throughout the country by the United Gold Beaters' National Union of America. In this city, according to Ellis Gray, president of the local union, 86 gold beaters and 40 apprentices are on strike. This affects 40 girls who fill the moulds for the beaters. The tie-up here is said to be complete and reports received at the local union's headquarters from New York, Chicago, Boston and indicate that all the union men in these cities are out. There are about 400 gold beaters in the United States and all are members of the union.

Wants Her Restored.

Washington, July 22.—Justice Hager issued a rule ordering Secretary of War Root to show cause by July 28 why a peremptory mandamus should not issue requiring him to restore Miss Rebecca J. Taylor to a clerkship in the war department. Miss Taylor was dismissed last June and the alleged cause of the action was unjust treatment. The trouble grew out of published statements of Miss Taylor criticizing the Philippines policy of the administration.

Philadelphia, July 22.—Victor Roullot, aged 51 years, a stock broker, committed suicide by inhaling illuminating gas at his home in Germantown, a suburb. His body was found by his wife on the floor of the kitchen. Roullot was recently convicted of conspiracy in connection with a stock transaction, and it is supposed this fact led to his suicide.

A NEW PARTY

May Be Formed With Colonel Bryan at Its Head.

New York, July 22.—At a conference held at Manhattan Beach in which the principal participants were Senator Dubois of Idaho, ex-Senator R. F. Pettigrew of South Dakota, Professor Garrett Droppers of South Dakota, and George Shibley of Washington, plans were discussed for the organization of a new national party. So far as it has gone, the new party seems to be an effort to unify the so-called liberal Democracy, which already has state organizations in New York, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Ohio and Iowa.

Mr. Shibley presented for the consideration of the other members of the conference a complete outline of a plan for a national organization on lines similar to those of the state organizations of the liberal Democracy.

At the close of the conference Senator Pettigrew gave a statement in which he said: "Mr. Bryan will not be the candidate of the regular Democracy in 1904, but he and his friends hope that he will have much to say regarding the platform and the management of the campaign. If he does not, Mr. Bryan and his associates will form a new party based on the Kansas City platform.

"Free silver will not again be a political issue. When we demanded the free coinage of silver we wanted more money. Since then immense new gold fields in Alaska and South Africa have been opened; there is more money than ever before and greater prosperity. This result is what we predicted when we asked for more money. Times are good in the west in spite of the beef trust. The farmers get more for their cattle and higher prices for their cereals."

Anti-Toxine Is Injected.

New York, July 22.—Treated by a recently discovered process, Joseph Tiernan, the 11-year-old son of Michael Tiernan, formerly a member of the New York baseball team, is believed to be recovering from lockjaw at the Harlem hospital. Anti-toxine in small doses is being injected into the spinal cord between the second and third vertebrae of the lumbar region. Previously anti-toxine had been used, but in the recorded cases it was injected into the brain through a hole bored in the skull. Under the new treatment young Tiernan has shown great improvement.

To Search For Treasures.

San Francisco, July 22.—The schooner Hermann has sailed for the south seas, ostensibly on a pleasure trip, but in reality it is said in search for buried treasure amounting to $70,000,000 reported to have been hidden on an island by the mutinous crew of a Japanese ship. Captain James Brown, a retired mariner of the Atlantic coast, is in command of the Hermann and is accompanied by four or five eastern friends. The little schooner was fitted out at an expense of $18,000.

To Submit Names.

Chicago, July 22.—Candidates from whom Rome is to choose a successor to the late Archbishop Feehan will be named Thursday, July 24. Each one of the 16 irremovable rectors and consultants of the archdiocese of Chicago received notice from Bishop Spalding to appear at conference to be held that day in this city. Bishop Spalding, who is the senior suffragan bishop in line of consecration in the archdiocese, will preside at the councils.

Another Port Blocked.

Washington, July 22.—A cablegram received at the state department from United States Minister Bowen at Caracas, states that the Venezuelan government has been in possession of the government and the revolutionists alternately during the past few months and at present the revolutionists hold the place, hence the attempt of the government to prevent ships entering there and paying custom dues to their enemies.

Camp McKinley a Success.

Newark, O., July 22.—Promptly at 4 a. m., at a signal ordered by General McMaken, the tents of Camp McKinley fell and the "tented city" passed into history. It will arise again in two weeks when the Fourth, Fifth, Seventh and Eighth regiments with the Cleveland Engineers come to the ground. Camp McKinley has been a success in the opinion of the officers from Governor Nash down.

Boiler Manufacturers.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 22.—The fourteenth annual convention of the American Boiler Manufacturers of the United States and Canada began here and will continue for three days. The convention was called to order by President Richard Hammond of Erie and the delegates were welcomed by Mayor Stoxy.

A GREAT STRIKE FUND

Officers of the United Mine Workers Expect a Ready Response.

NO DELAY IN HANDLING THE MONEY.

The Money Raised For Defense Will Be Distributed Among the Three Anthracite Districts According to Membership.

Indianapolis, July 22.—The greatest strike fund in the history of organized labor is to be handled in Indianapolis. The officers of the United Mine Workers are confident that there will be a ready response to the appeal made by the convention and while half a million dollars a week may not be possible, they believe that will be obtained.

W. B. Wilson, national secretary and treasurer, to whom all subscriptions are payable and who will distribute the funds, said that the office force will be increased immediately so there will be no delay in handling the money.

The defense fund is to be distributed among the three anthracite districts according to their membership. Wilson says that district No. 1 will probably receive 53 per cent, No. 9 35 per cent and No. 12 percent. District 1 has more members than both No. 9 and No. 12. The money will be sent from Indianapolis to the secretaries of the anthracite districts and distributed by them among the strikers.

The auditing committee, Michael McTaggart and Patrick Fitzsimmons of Pennsylvania and J. J. Mosop of Ohio are now going over the accounts of the organization for the last quarter.

Andrews Blamed.

Detroit, July 22.—Bank Examiner Maltz concluded his testimony in the trial of Frank C. Andrews, vice president of the wrecked City Savings bank. He said he was satisfied that the bank would have been able to pay dollar for dollar had it not been for Andrews. Joseph A. Schulte, who was assistant cashier of the bank, told of Andrews coming to the bank after closing up hours to see how he stood. He said Andrews had a continuous overdraft from October, 1901, to the close of the bank.

World Wide Hibernians.

Denver, July 22.—It was decided by the national board of directors of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, chosen at the last session of the biennial convention to incorporate each state division of the order. President Dolan was authorized to act as the agent of the order in the United States, Canada and Mexico, in arranging the details of affiliation with other continental bodies of similar character. This is the first step in the general federation of Irish Catholics throughout the world.

Vilas on Democratic Harmony.

Milwaukee, July 22.—The Hon. William F. Vilas, who was secretary of the interior in President Cleveland's cabinet, was recently asked by Mr. A. F. Warden, chairman of the Democratic state central committee, to give his opinion respecting political conditions, the possibilities of Democratic harmony "and the assurances of the party's restoration to power and the relief of the people from Republican mal-administration." Mr. Vilas replied at length to the letter.

Jury Disagrees.

Chicago, July 22.—After a wrangle with an obstinate juror which lasted 24 hours and became so heated at times that fists were shaken in the persistent man's face by his associates, a disagreement has resulted in Judge Brentano's court in the case of Martin Howe, a constable charged with the murder of James F. Hardy. Juror McDonald said later that he stood out for Howe through principle, believing that the constable acted in self-defense.

Threatened With Lynching.

St. Joseph, Mo., July 22.—Alfred M. Fenton, a wealthy farmer of Rushville, Mo., was shot on the streets of that village by Mark Dunn. Dunn, who it is alleged had been drinking, was arrested, but escaping from the officer he secured a shotgun and shot and killed Fenton, who was passing in a buggy. The shooting was entirely without provocation and Dunn is in danger of being lynched by the citizens of Rushville.

St. Louis, July 22.—The postponed trial of Henry B. Faulkner, member of the house of delegates, charged with perjury in connection with the suburban street railway franchise bribery case, was called in the circuit court before Judge Douglas. A jury is being empanelled.

Mr. SCHWAB, of the steel trust, is erecting a new mansion in New York that will cost $3,000,000. A good many people in this country who have contributed to build this palace in the way of enhanced prices on iron products may never have an invitation to see its splendors or enjoy the hospitality of its owner, remarks the Bloomington Pantagraph.

CONGRESSMAN NEWLANDS, of Nevada, takes the generally accepted view of the President's anti-trust blast. He urges that it comes a little late, after Congress had just finished a seven months' session, in which a number of anti-trust bills were introduced and rejected by the Republican party without a word of protest from the President. Further, says Mr. Newlands: "The President did not become imbued with this trust-hunting idea until the Democrats had adopted it as their leading issue. After seven months of silence on the subject he has suddenly discovered that it is a burning question, and at the outset of a Congressional campaign he proposes that something shall be done. Considering the fact that the next session of Congress will be a short session, and that a number of important matters will demand consideration, I doubt very much if any anti-trust bill will be presented or seriously considered. Trusts can be regulated only by means of our interstate commerce laws and by taxation."

IN regard to the burning issue of the trusts the Republicans have betrayed an incapacity alike in the legislative and in the executive departments, asserts the Philadelphia Record. Before the recent session of Congress began far-seeing men in the party urged the importance of a substantial reform of gross abuses of the Dingley tariff and Representative Babcock came forward with his bill to repeal protective duties favoring the trusts in their spoliation of the masses of American consumers. This falls far short of the Democratic demand for a reform of the tariff, not merely to arrest favoritism to the trusts, but to transfer to the free list all the raw materials of production. While the session was progressing the scandalous and oppressive methods of the beef trust were brought into full public gaze, but in the presence of this and other industrial monopolies covered by the tariff, the Republican majority in Congress were incapable of turning a wheel, and the administration has attempted to make up for its failure by the issue of a few impotent injunctions. So little is the testament of William McKinley respected by his party that the poor Cuban bill was hung up in the Senate and the reciprocity treaties were left to expire in Senate executive session. In the face of this record a modicum of modesty would be becoming in the boast of the Republican party of its ability to govern this great country.

A Study in Economy

Important selling of hosiery and underwear is going on—the selling that must be done two or three times a year to hurry out the parts of dozens and parts of lots that would soon get troublesome. With our own lots are included some larger lots—just as cheap—that came from makers willing to quickly clear stock rooms. Without exception all the goods are first quality—no "seconds." Excellent material, shape and finish.

Men's Half Hose!

Our customers have conservative tastes for the plain socks are going while the fancy remain. To equalize stocks we have marked every pair of fancy lisle 25 cent half hose 15c., or in one-half dozen lots, 12½c. The line includes all colors with printed and embroidered decoration. Don't confuse prices—we're not offering 15c. socks, but 25c. qualities for 15c. We want Maysville's best hosiery judges to see this bargain for it will command the appreciation of those who know quality.

For Women!

We were tempted to buy this lot of stockings to retail for 15c. a pair. We say tempted because the line proved such an unusual quality for 15c. it forced our regular 15c. stockings to 10c. And we're still wondering whether we win or lose. There's no doubt for you, however—you win either way. The 15c. stockings are made of fine combed Macoyarn and there's a smoothness and finish in the weaving that can't fail to satisfy you. The 10c. stockings are our regular 15c. quality. It hurts to sell them a third off, but "comparisons are odorous."

D. HUNT & SON

DEATH'S HARVEST.

Maysville Loses Three More of Her Prominent and Highly Respected Citizens.

Mrs. Susan McAtee, Mr. J. B. Burgess and Mr. M. C. Russell Died Monday—Later's Death Very Sudden.

Maysville is called upon to mourn the loss of three more of her prominent and highly respected citizens.

Mrs. Susan Elizabeth McAtee, whose critical illness was mentioned Saturday, lingered until 11:30 o'clock Monday morning when she fell asleep in death.

The loss of her only son, the late W. B. McAtee, on March 12th last, was a severe blow to her. Shortly after his death she was taken ill, and for thirteen weeks she had been steadily declining, as a result of a complication of diseases. For two or three days she had lingered in an unconscious condition, and her family and friends were in a measure prepared for the sad announcement of her death.

Mrs. McAtee was born Oct. 18th, 1829, and was a daughter of Garrison and Nancy (Marshall) Baldwin, Virginians, who had previously come to Kentucky and taken up their residence in this county. Her life was spent in Mason. On Aug. 29th, 1849, she was united in marriage to William J. McAtee, and they were blessed with a long and happy wedded life, her husband dying some eight or ten years ago. Two daughters and a son were born to them, only one of whom survive—Mrs. A. H. Thompson, with whom Mrs. McAtee had made her home most ever since the death of Mr. McAtee which occurred August 28, 1892. The other daughter, Nannie, died in 1887.

Mrs. McAtee leaves one brother, Colonel W. W. Baldwin.

Deceased was one of the oldest and most faithful members of the Christian Church, having been identified with the church for about fifty years. The funeral will be conducted by the minister, Elder R. E. Moss, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Thompson. Interment in the Maysville Cemetery.

JOSHUA BOYNTON BURGESS.

Mr. Joshua B. Burgess died Monday at 1:55 p. m. at the family residence southeast corner of Second and Shultz streets, of a complication of diseases. He had been rapidly failing for about two weeks. Early Monday morning he sank into an unconscious condition from which he never rallied, the end coming at the hour named.

Joshua Boynton Burgess was born March 28th, 1826, at or near Mayslick, and was a son of Mordecai and Sallie Burgess. In his early manhood he was associated with his brother, the late M. R. Burgess, in business at Mayslick, but most of his life was spent on the farm—for a time near Mayslick and later at his handsome home at Fern Leaf. Some years ago he retired from the active pursuits of life and spent his remaining days in this city in the enjoyment of that ease and rest which he has so richly earned. A man of the strictest integrity, attending to the minutest details of his business affairs with remarkable promptness up to his last illness, he ever commanded the respect and esteem of all who knew him. A man of great industry, prudent in the management of his business affairs, he had accumulated a handsome estate, much of it consisting of fine land in Mason and Fleming counties.

Mr. Burgess was married twice, his first wife being a Miss Fitzgerald, of Fleming County, (a sister of Mrs. Thomas Wells of this city), and his last wife a Miss Pinckard of this county, who survives him with three daughters,—Mrs. Lida Chenault, of Frankfort, wife of State Insurance Commissioner John B. Chenault, Mrs. John C. Everett and Miss Sallie Burgess, the latter two of this city. A fourth daughter, also by his last marriage, died a few years ago. He leaves two brothers, Joseph V., of Pittsburg, Kan., and James, of Dunkirk, Ind., and three sisters, Mrs. Ware and Mrs. Madigan, of Kansas City, and Mrs. McKrell who lives at some point in California.

A faithful member of the Christian Church for almost sixty years, Mr. Burgess' funeral will be conducted by the minister, Elder R. E. Moss. The service will be held Thursday at 10:30 a. m. at the family residence. Interment in the Maysville Cemetery.

MILTON C. RUSSELL.

The announcement of Mr. M. C. Russell's sudden death last evening came as a great shock to the community. While it was known that his health had been failing for nearly two years, yet no one was prepared for the sad news.

After supper last evening, Mr. Russell and members of his family, with some relatives who are guests at the home, spent some time on the veranda. Shortly before 9 o'clock, he complained of not feeling well, and was assisted to his room on the second floor by his oldest son, where he breathed his last in a few moments.

For about two years Mr. Russell had suffered from Bright's disease and impending gangrene of both feet, all links in the same chain of mal-nutrition from mental strain or overwork. The immediate cause of death was from the condition familiarly known as "heart failure," which means great physical waste with insufficient repair—the giving of more than is supplied to the organism.

Milton Culbertson Russell was a native of Maysville, and here he spent his life, a life characterized by indomitable courage, great industry and crowned with success in his chosen line of business pursuits. He was born in 1844, and was a son of Christopher and Mary Russell.

At the age of fifteen he entered the grocery of John Richeson, as clerk, continuing with him until 1864, when he entered the employ of the late D. A. Richardson, in the wholesale grocery, liquor and seed business. In 1881 he purchased an interest in this business, and five years later assumed entire control. In 1890, his eldest son, J. Barbour Russell, entered the firm, and the business was conducted for several years under the firm name of M. C. Russell & Son.

A year or so ago, the M. C. Russell Co. succeeded the old firm, Mr. Russell, on account of his failing health, retiring from the active management of the business, and being succeeded by his eldest son. Whenever his health would permit, however, and often when not physically able, he was found at his place of business up to the last, assisting in the management of its affairs.

The handsome business house—the Russell Building—and his elegant residence stand as monuments to his thrift and enterprise. In his commercial pursuits he made a large circle of friends, and became known throughout a wide territory as one of Maysville's most prominent and most honorable business men. A man of genial disposition, with a smile and pleasant word for all, he was a friend to all and was ever ready to lend a helping hand. He loved his city, and any move looking to its welfare always received his encouragement.

In his death Maysville loses not only one of her most successful business men but one of her most public spirited citizens.

Mr. Russell is survived by his wife, who was Miss Elexene Johnson, and he leaves three sons—J. Barbour, Christopher D. and Thomas M. Russell.

Deceased was a 32° Mason, a member of DeKalb Lodge No. 12, I. O. O. F., of Limestone Lodge No. 36, K. of P., a charter member of Wyandotte Tribe No. 3, I. O. R. M., and of Maysville Lodge of Elks. He was also a member of Washington Fire Company and had served as President of the company a number of terms. He had also been Secretary of the Mason County Building and Saving Association ever since it was organized, an institution in which he took the greatest interest.

The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the family residence, with religious services by Elder R. E. Moss of the Christian Church. The Oddfellows will have charge and all other lodges of which deceased was a member are invited. The interment will be in Maysville Cemetery.

Once Upon a Time

A Hard Customer bought some hickory nuts of a youthful vendor, thinking she had "struck a bargain" because they were "cheap." Finding them mouldy, the old lady complained to the little merchant that they were "not what they were cracked up to be."

That's similar to the experience of some Shoe customers. Attracted by ridiculously low quotations, they find, after trial, that their purchases are "hard nuts," and often worth little more than the paper they were wrapped in.

We would have it distinctly understood that while our Shoe offerings just now are in the nature of bargains, Men's lines having been reduced to $3.00 that earlier in the season sold at $3.50, $4 and $4.50, the goods are exactly what they are "cracked up to be," and your inspection is invited to verify this statement.

Miss Gordon announces she will open her private school for boys and girls in the chapel of the Church of Nativity the first Monday in September, 1902. The chief aim of the school shall be to instill high principles and to develop true and noble character, while the same careful drill and thorough discipline which have characterized her work in the Girls' High School the past fourteen years will be adhered to. Those wishing particulars may call on H. O. Sharp, State National Bank, Maysville, or write Miss Gordon, Maxwell street, Lexington, Ky.

EVAN G. RICKETTS.

Native of Maysville Passed Away Recently at His Home in Bloomington, Illinois.

[Bloomington, Ill., Pantagraph, July 18th]
Mr. Evan G. Ricketts died at his residence, 904 East Walnut street, yesterday morning. His death was caused by injuries received in a severe fall the early part of last winter, which left him an invalid. The deceased was a contracting plasterer, and has been actively engaged in that business up to the last few years, when old age caused him to retire to a more quiet place.

Evan Griffith Ricketts was born in Maysville, Ky., July 16th, 1824. He resided in that town for many years, and while there married Miss Julia Dement January 16, 1851. In the following year he removed to Bloomington, where he resided until 1860. At that time Mr. Ricketts removed to Lexington, Mo., where he worked at his trade as plasterer for about twenty years, at which time he returned to this city, and has remained here ever since. Besides his wife the following children survive him: John J., of Battle Creek, Mich.; Mrs. Ida M. Swaim, George, William and Forrest L., all of this city, and Mrs. Julia Orendorf, of Colorado Springs.

Mr. Ricketts was a brother of the late Mrs. Thomas Neal, Mrs. Jane Outten and Mrs. Mary Spalding. He leaves a number of relatives in this city.

Towboats of the same power are handling tows of coal almost twice as large as they did thirty years ago. The Ajax was the largest and most powerful towboat of her time, and yet boats with much less power are handling much larger tows at the present time, and, if anything, more successfully.

The following named towboats are on their way to New Orleans: The Defender, Joe Williams, Harry Brown, W. W. O'Neil, Boaz, Raymond Horner, J. B. Finley, Sam Clark, Alice Brown, Exporter and Charley Brown. The O'Neil has forty-seven boats and barges of coal and one barge of steel goods. The Boaz has thirty-nine boats and barges of coal and the Raymond Horner has forty boats and barges of coal. The J. B. Williams, when she passed Memphis, had thirty-four loaded coal boats, carrying 26,000 bushels each, nine barges of 15,000 bushels, also two barges of steel rails; in all nearly 1,150,000 bushels of coal.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Prof. Withers, of Yale, and Prof. Peterson, of Louisville, Secured by Superintendent Wells as Instructors.

The Mason County Teachers' Institute booked for the last week in August promises to prove one of the most successful ever held in this county. Superintendent Wells is working and planning with that end in view. The teachers will, of course, all be in attendance, but Mr. Wells trusts that greater interest than ever before will be taken by the patrons of the schools and the public in general in the sessions of the institute.

Superintendent Wells has secured Prof. J. A. Withers, of Yale College, and Prof. H. C. Peterson, a prominent educator of Louisville, as instructors. Prof. Withers has been identified with the Normal University at Lebanon, O., but took a post-graduate course at Yale the past year and at the close was engaged as a member of the faculty of that institution. Let all interested in the welfare of the public schools of the county plan to attend the coming institute.
